

Diminutives

Diminutives are used to describe a smaller or younger version of something. For example, the diminutive of dog would be puppy. Can you find the diminutive of each noun below? The answers are listed in a box at the foot of the page.

1. A young duck is a _____
2. A young goose is a _____
3. A young cow is a _____
4. A young eagle is a _____
5. A very small stream is a _____
6. A young sheep is a _____
7. A young horse is a _____
8. A young hare is a _____
9. A young goat is a _____
10. A very small river is a _____
11. A young swan is a _____
12. A young deer is a _____
13. A young tree is a _____
14. A small island is a _____
15. A young lion is a _____

gosling	cub	streamlet	cygnet	Fawn
sapling	duckling	calf	islet	kid
foal	lamb	leveret	eaglet	rivulet

Diminutives

Diminutives are used to describe a smaller or younger version of something. For example, the diminutive of dog would be puppy. Can you find the diminutive of each noun below? The answers are listed in a box at the foot of the page.

1. A young duck is a duckling
2. A young goose is a gosling
3. A young cow is a calf
4. A young eagle is an eaglet
5. A very small stream is a streamlet
6. A young sheep is a lamb
7. A young horse is a foal
8. A young hare is a leveret
9. A young goat is a kid
10. A very small river is a rivulet
11. A young swan is a cygnet
12. A young deer is a fawn
13. A young tree is a sapling
14. A small island is an islet
15. A young lion is a cub

gosling	cub	streamlet	cygnet	Fawn
sapling	duckling	calf	islet	kid
foal	lamb	leveret	eaglet	rivulet