

Tools 1

Use the list at the foot of the page to help identify the correct tool for each use.
Use each word one only once.

1. If you wish to check the temperature you should use a _____.
2. Use a _____ to open a tin.
3. If you wish to type something on a computer, use a _____.
4. Use a _____ to strain water from food.
5. If you wish to screw two objects together, use a _____.
6. A _____ is used to tighten nuts on bolts.
7. Use a _____ to remove a cork from a bottle.
8. A set of _____ is used to measure an object's weight.
9. Use a _____ to make sure something is level.
10. Use a pair of _____ to cut a piece of paper.

keyboard	tin-opener	colander	scales	screwdriver
scissors	spanner	spirit level	thermometer	corkscrew

Tools 1

Use the list at the foot of the page to help identify the correct tool for each use.
Use each word one only once.

1. If you wish to check the temperature you should use a thermometer.
2. Use a tin-opener to open a tin.
3. If you wish to type something on a computer, use a keyboard.
4. Use a colander to strain water from food.
5. If you wish to screw two objects together, use a screwdriver.
6. A spanner is used to tighten nuts on bolts.
7. Use a corkscrew to remove a cork from a bottle.
8. A set of scales is used to measure an object's weight.
9. Use a spirit level to make sure something is level.
10. Use a pair of scissors to cut a piece of paper.

keyboard	tin-opener	colander	scales	screwdriver
scissors	spanner	spirit level	thermometer	corkscrew